

Miaa Rene.

From Hollywood nightlife to Ministry of Sound London.

Biography

Miaa Rene is a Los Angeles-based DJ with a lifelong passion for music. Her career has taken her from some of LA's premier nightlife venues to performances around the world, including multiple appearances at the legendary Ministry of Sound in London.

Miaa has had multiple residencies in Hollywood, including an extended Bar Lis residency on Thursday nights. There were many weekends and events at Warwick in Hollywood. She has been a DJ for nightclubs all over Los Angeles, including Keys nightclub, Midnight Raves, and a large special event Halloween rave. Miaa has also performed for large brand events including Red Bull and more.

Miaa's sets span everything from House and Drum & Bass to open format, giving her the versatility to play a wide range of venues, crowds and events.

Miaa completed three programs through the London Sound Academy, including its Elite Program. She has also spent more than two years in ongoing private training and mentorship with DJ Dyluxe, continuing to refine her performance technique while developing her skills in music production.

Now expanding beyond live performance, Miaa is developing original music with the support of experienced producers and studio collaborators. Her love of music and travel continues to take her around the world, with multiple international performances already under her belt and more to come.
